

15. Triangle D

Blair Dyck – raised in the city of Saskatoon until high school when she moved to Hanley. Blair did 4H, and barrel raced a bit until she graduated and moved into the working world. She's worked and moved around, running road construction equipment, working on ranches, and spent a year in northern BC working for a horse trainer. After moving home she spent a couple summers working community pasture, at Dundurn, farming for a neighbour and ranching with husband Brandon. Together for almost 10 years, they now have 2 young kids, and she has been enjoying her time spent chasing them around, helping out on the family ranch, sewing, some leatherwork, and day working the odd time.

Brandon Dyck – 3rd generation cattle rancher "Triangle D Land & Cattle" born and raised on the ranch west of Hanley Saskatchewan, has spent his entire life working alongside his dad and grandpa, less a couple summers he spent out working for family friends riding and roping learning how be a cowboy. Brandon is a handyman, jack of all trades type of guy, from operating to rebuilding tractors, welding, wood working, leather work, and of course cowboying. Brandon is most passionate about his cattle, and regenerative farming practices, raising quality hardy cows and home raised bulls. Brandon is riding his trusty ol' mare "Mary" he started her as a 3 year old, and have been partners for 14 years now, at his side, wife Blair Dyck is riding full sister to Mary, "dot"

Chase Bridgeman – single- 25 years old works on a ranch in the Allan hills calving pairs, grazing yearlings, doctoring animals and always moving something to fresh grass. In his spare time he's training horses, starting them when they are 2 years old and getting a job done on the ranch by the time they turn 3, he also makes rope halters for any size horse.

Jae Norris – Jae Norris, 29, raising 2 sons with his wife Jazmin. Potash miner by day. Hobby farmer to chickens, pigs and horses by night. Spends time sledding, welding, working on trucks, butchering meat and smoking sausage. If there's a way to save money and do it yourself, he'll figure it out. Riding his trusty 15 year old mount Tick who may or may not get the job done.
