Sprayer will not find rate controller

CUSTO COMPLAINT

Sprayer will not find rate controller

CAUSE:

need to be set up, fixed other issues on sprayer as per sales.

CORRECTION:

I went and checked the monitor and when I clicked on the spray icon in the UT screen the rate controller popped up and set up the rate controller. I went and put water in the tank and sprayed with it and the sprayer holds the rate, tried the auto boom and the auto fold and they both work. I noticed that the gps icon is in yellow, getting mixed software alarms for ncv's and low voltage alarms. I went and checked all the settings and they seem right, went and got Chris's help, he hooked up the gps cable and his est and set the gps signal to waas, went and tried the steering and got it to work. I got a text from Lane and he said they want a subscription in it so I sent the serial number to Chris H and the work order and he got me a code. Chris came back out and he put in the code, updated the auto fold controller and the product controller. Chris and I tried it and the accu boom works and we noticed that the boom pressure and the sparge pressure are in dashes, Chris went and checked a few things put in the monitor and they are correct. When we were running it the one product hose has a leak and there are a couple 5 ways that leak. I went and fixed the leaks, Chris went and updated the viper, went and tried it and had to calibrate the steering and then tried spraying with it and the boom pressure and the sparge pressure are now reading. I went and washed off the bottom of the sprayer to get read of the oil mess, went and tied up some loose harness's along the boom, have no more alarms for low voltage and mixed match ncv software.
