

JJU Ranching

Brandt Jacob – from Shaunavon, SK, Brandt is running the Gunn Grazing Co-op along with his own cow/calf operation. When he is not out in the pasture you will find him in a round pen with his horses, or on the road wheelin' 'n dealin' for his next swamp donkey!

Colin Smith – Colin is a rancher and pasture manager from Shaunavon, Saskatchewan. Colin is married to Marla, together they are proud parents of 4 children Codee (Reina), Cassidy, Carissa & Coy. Outside of ranching, Colin enjoys team roping and spending time with his family.

Cassidy Smith – Cassidy is a passionate horsewoman who enjoys barrel racing and spending time with her friends. For the past 2 years, Cassidy has proudly been a pasture rider for Val Marie. Cassidy is the daughter of Colin & Marla Smith. In the off season Cassidy calls Shaunavon her home. Whether she's in the saddle, competing in barrel racing, or enjoying time with friends and family, she brings a love of horses and good times wherever she goes.

Coy Smith – Coy is the youngest son of Colin & Marla Smith and is currently in grade 10 at Shaunavon High School. Coy's passion is rodeo, where he competes in junior steer riding and Novice Bulls. He also enjoys team roping whenever he gets the chance. With a strong passion for rodeo and a competitive spirit, Coy looks forward to continuing to grow and make his mark in the rodeo community.

